SOUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA. CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS,

AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in eash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two sured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospeats of future usefulness. THE MASSASCHUETTS ABOLITIONIST .- The endorsement of Mr. Summer's speech, by the Black Republican Legislature of Massas-chuetts, is a bold adoption of the rankest ab-olition sentiments as the creed of the Black Republicans-the supporters of Lincoln and Hamlin. It accepts Garrison as the Black Republican prophet and leader, with all his diabolical heresies, and gives unequivocal assent to his avowal that "the United States Constitution is a covenant with death, and an agreement with hell." Summer's speech contained the highest eulogy of Garrison he could utter, and the Black Republicans of Massaschuetts place their seal of approbation upon what Summer said by solemn Legislative resolves, which they direct to be sent to the officers and members of the National Legislature. Thus has Garrison abolitionism been formally adopted as Black Republicanism, and what the Massaschuetts Legislature has joined, let no man put asunder. Now we have Black Republicanism in its pure state-without mask or disguise of any kind-it is admitted to be the twin brother of Garrison-Phillips Abolitionism, united by the strong ligament of solemn, formal, Legislative declaration. The people will clearly understand that it is not the "rail-splitter" they are asked to call to power, but the Union-splitter with Abolitionism for his wedge .- Boston Post. The London correspondent of the Leeds, England, Mercury, writing of the managers and management of the London Times, says: "Mr. Walter is not the only great proprietor of that paper, for a Mrs. Anne Brodie is nearly, if not equally, as much concerned in its prosperity, though she is too great an invalid to sit at that fearful council-board Mr. Horsman speaks of. The paper is, however divided into sixteen shares. Among the names will be found Hoggs, Cardens, Tites, Woods, &c., and, in fact, it is a little jointstock company in which there is no Rothschild, as rumor sometime since asserted .-As regards the influence of Mr. Walter, I may mention instances enough when smart and damaging articles have been written in the Times against some political policy in the morning's paper, and Mr. Walter's name has been afterwards found in the list of those who voted for the measure. THE RULE IN PRACTICE. - The first marriage at Centenary Methodist Church under the rule requiring persons to exhibit cards of invitation at the door, took place last week, and as we learn from a gentleman who was present, in a highly satisfactory way. Instead of the crowd, rush and consequent dis-Just published Malaeska, the Indian Wife of the order which usually attend marriages in the churches in this city, everything was quiet, orderly and becoming. The parties chiefly concerned had invited as many persons as they desired to have present, and those persons attended, and the entire service was as decorous and impressive as if it had been preformed in a private parlor. The propriety of the rule in question is now demonstraetc., etc., with a fac simile of the celebrated cipher | ted, and it will be rigidly adhered to. On letter and key, by Charles Burdett, 1 vol. 12mo no occasion will persons, other than those invited, be admitted into Centenary Church to witness a marriage ceremony .- Richmond Enquirer.
